

RAMAPO COLLEGE FOUNDATION
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS
UNAUDITED

June 30, 2011

The mission of Ramapo College Foundation (Foundation) "is to provide resources that make the difference in Ramapo College of New Jersey's quest for educational excellence." The Foundation, established in 1971 as a nonprofit corporation, is a 501(c)(3) charitable institution. In addition, based upon the guidance covering the Pension Protection Act of 2006 the Foundation would be considered a functionally integrated Type III supporting organization. Its purposes include providing funds to Ramapo College (College) for: student scholarships, educational programs, faculty development and research, community programs, construction projects, capital needs, and other College activities for which state funds may not be sufficient or available.

As an entity that follows accounting standards of the Financial Accounting Standards Board, the Foundation is not required to accompany its basic financial statements with a Management's Discussion and Analysis. However, Foundation management believes that some discussion and analysis may provide useful information and may prove helpful to users of the Foundation's financial statements. Accordingly, it has prepared the following Management's Discussion and Analysis to accompany the Foundation's 2011 financial statements.

This Management's Discussion and Analysis provides an overview of the Foundation's financial activities for its fiscal year ended June 30, 2011 with comparative information for the year ended June 30, 2010, and reviews, and should be read in conjunction with, the Foundation's Statement of Financial Position, Statement of Activities, and Statement of Cash Flows, including the financial statement footnotes. Those financial statements were examined by independent auditors and were prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Responsibility for content and preparation rests solely with the Foundation's management.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Increased giving by alumni, parents and friends has allowed Ramapo College Foundation's financial position to remain sound after three years of a difficult national economic climate. Total operating support and revenue increased dramatically to $8,342,195 in FY' 11 from $4,849,098 in FY' 10. The strongest area of growth was in restricted giving which increased by 168.1% to $3,278,866 in FY' 11 from $1,222,891 in FY' 10. The Endowment grew by 24.3% to $10,831,860 in FY' 11 from $8,110,209 i

National trends reported only a modest 0.5% increase in contributions to colleges and Universities as noted by the Council for Aid to Education (CAE), The Chronicle of Higher Education, and the National Association of College and University Business Officers in its May 2011 survey. Corporate giving increased by 2.4%

The following financial data compares the Foundation's activities (operating results) for its fiscal year ended June 30, 2011 with its activities for its fiscal year ended June 30, 2010.

Operating support and revenue

As shown above, the Foundation receives support and revenue from a variety of sources. These sources include donations, fund raising, grants, special events, bequests and other planned giving instruments, pledges, investment income and gifts-in-kind.

Total revenue increased by $3,494,097 going from $4,849,098 to $8,342,195. This increase was primarily the result of the positive change in Foundation Investment Income of $1,441,447 and an increase in Donation Revenue of $2,076,298.

Total Temporarily Restricted Revenues had a net increase of $3,352,034 going from a negative amount of $(652,017) to a positive amount of $2,700,017. This was mainly due to the increase in Donation Revenue of $2,059,907 with $2,496,339 in 2011 as compared to $436,432 in 2010 and an increase in Investment Income of $1,447,337 with $1,795,848 in 2011 as compared to $368,511 in 2010.

Expenses

The Statement of Activities also reflects expenses. Total Expenses increased from $4,529,253 in 2010 to $4,590,754 in 2011. Restricted Grants Expenses remained the single largest category of expense at $2,030,660 and $2,175,472 for fiscal years 2011 and 2010, respectively. The expenses for the Meadowlands Grant were $1,791,726 and $1,698,998 for 2011 and 2010, respectively.

The increase in total expenses for 2011 can be mostly attributed to increases in Payment to College towards Capital Projects expenses of $127,258, Events and Programs Expenses of $117,590 which were offset by the $83,218 decrease in Planned Giving and Capital Campaign expenses and the $144,812 decrease in Restricted Grant expenses. The Capital Project Expense increase was due to the increase in receipt of Capital Project related donations. The Planned Giving and Capital Campaign Expense decrease is mainly due to the one time reduction in Planned Giving Events and the timing of Comprehensive Capital Campaign consultant payments.. The decrease in Grant related expenses included resulted from the timing of grant program activity.

CONCLUSION

The Foundation will continue to emphasize the need for more endowment support, and seek to grow the planned giving legacy programs, secure significant capital support to renovate academic facilities, and increase annual fund participation levels. The five-year Institutional Advancement / Ramapo College Foundation Strategic Plan remains on target to ensure measurable strides are made in the "Quiet Phase" of the Campaign and that success will be reached for a "Public Phase" announcement on November 18, 2011. With a tentative goal of $40 million, over $34 million had been committed as of June 30, 2011.
