

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

It saddens and angers me that today we had to share information about a sexual assault reported early this morning.

Earlier today many of you received this Timely Warning Notification:

programs

- Reached out to the Student Government Association President to outline the content of a discussion I intend to have with student leaders tomorrow and
- Met at length with the Chair of the Board of Trustees concerning these issues.

These initiatives, in addition to the ong